

Code of Ethics in Youth Work Training

When:

Friday 28th October 2011 9 30am – 4 00pm
Morning, Afternoon Tea and Lunch will be provided

Where:

The Training Room at 48 Lismore Street (behind AMI Stadium)

Cost:

$50.00

Workshop Brief:

Attending this training is part of the process for becoming a member of the Collective. We provide this training so you have an understanding of what you are signing up to.

Ethics training is essential for all Youth Workers, you will gain an understanding of what are good ethics to follow when working with young people in different contexts.

Facilitator:

Jane Zintl Dip. Yth Wk; LLB; BA (Psyc)

Jane is an experienced Youth Worker and qualified Solicitor. She has 20 years experience in both paid and voluntary Youth Work, in a faith and secular context and is integrally involved in the development of both the CYWC Code of Ethics and the National Code of Ethics. Jane currently is the Chair of the South City Youth Trust and operates her own business providing facilitation, supervision, coaching and consultancy, primarily in the areas of Youth Work.
